Stephanie Silveira is an associate in Newmeyer Dillion's Newport Beach office. She is a tenacious and committed advocate who prioritizes clear communication and practical problem-solving solutions to help clients achieve meaningful, results-driven outcomes. Stephanie brings a set of skills that support effective collaboration and strong client representation, including:

A multicultural perspective that enhances problem-solving. As the daughter of Brazilian immigrants, Stephanie understands that effective representation begins with understanding each client's unique background and concerns. Growing up in a multicultural environment, Stephanie approaches legal issues with the ability to view problems from multiple angles. Her background has strengthened her adaptability, cultural awareness, and communication skills – allowing her to anticipate client needs and craft thoughtful, strategic solutions.

Strong analytical and legal writing skills. Stephanie brings a meticulous eye for detail and applies her writing expertise to develop well-reasoned, compelling legal arguments on behalf of clients navigating complex issues. She refined her legal research, writing, and analytical abilities as both a staff member and the Senior Alumni & Symposia Editor on the Loyola of Los Angeles Entertainment Law Review.

Client-focused guidance and steady communication in challenging situations. Stephanie brings a client-first mindset to every matter she handles. Before law school, she served as a the Portuguese Legal Coordinator at a personal injury law firm, acting as the primary point of contact for all Portuguese-speaking clients. Through this experience, Stephanie honed her ability to translate complex legal information into clear guidance, providing clients with calm, confident support throughout stressful and unfamiliar processes.
